

Roberto Aprea – Board member

Curriculum Vitae

He graduated from high school as an accountant and commercial technical expert in 1993. In the past, he was a trainee at Studio Castellano and attended the relevant course at the Order of Labour Consultants of Naples. He currently works as a first level employee of the Issuer's subsidiary Libri&Professioni S.r.l., for which he also acted as sole director from 1996 to 2021, serving as head of administration and accounting, as well as manager of bookshops in several Italian cities, such as Milan, Rome, Salerno and Naples.