

Roberto Coccia – Standing Auditor

Curriculum Vitae

After graduating in Economics and Business from the University of Naples Federico II in 2000 and qualifying as a chartered accountant in 2004, he qualified as a chartered accountant in 2005, registering in the National Register of Auditors under no. 146795. In the past, he held the position of senior auditor at PwC S.p.A. and later corporate internal audit manager at Coca-Cola Hbc, as well as being a lecturer for numerous post-graduate and corporate training courses. He currently works at Studio Coccia & Associati as a tax, corporate and valuation consultant for companies operating in various sectors and based both in Italy and abroad, as well as supervisory and statutory auditing activities, activities pertaining to the organisational model pursuant to Legislative Decree 231/2001, implementation and auditing of internal control procedures, and finally consulting, auditing and compliance audits with reference to mandatory regulations.